KALI POOJA

Why Maa Kali – the Form of Shakti – is Worshipped?
 Bengalis adore Maa Kali or Mother Kali as she is the positive form of Shakti or Power. Just as a mother protects her child from all the negative influences, Goddess Kali too protects her children- we, the human beings- from evil and negative forces. Maa Kali is always depicted as dark and ferocious goddess. Kali means black or dark. This colour embodies all the colours and thus becomes the colour of power. By worshipping Kali, people seek her assistance in destroying evil, both outside and within us. Those who worship Kali believe that this Puja kills ego and all negative tendencies that might become an obstacle in achieving spiritual growth. Through her power of eliminating the evil, mother not only protects the outwardly negative forces but also the inner negative feelings of her devotees. Why Kali is believed to be the ultimate form of power is reflected in the legend behind the birth of this Goddess Legend of Goddess Kali's Birth There were two demons named Shambhu and Nishambhu. These demons made the life of Lord Indra, the King of Gods difficult. There were numerous among the gods and the demons and with each win, the demons became stronger. The gods then decided to pray to Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati, the other form of Goddess Durga. Listening to the woes of gods, Durga became angry and gave birth to Kali from her forehead. Goddess Kali took birth to save the heaven and the earth from the rising brutality of demons. Her two escorts Dakini and Jogini accompanied her on her way to end the war and kill the demons. The ferocious Kali went on a killing spree and ended all the demons, made a garland of demons' heads and wore it. During this rampant killing of demons, KaNow the gods got scared and again took shelter in Lord Shiva. To stop Kali from destroying the universe, Lord Shiva lay himself down on the way of Kali. As soon as Kali stepped on the chest of Shiva, she realized what mistake had she done by insulting her consort. In astonishment and realization of her mistake, she stuck out her tongue in repentance. This recovered the lost senses of Kali. Since then Kali is depicted with her one leg on the chest of Shiva lying down and her tongue stuck out in repentance. How is Kali Puja Performed? While most of the Bengali families worship Kali everyday at home during their daily worship, Kali Puja on this particular day of Kartik Amavasya is performed as a community in pandals. Pandal is a temporary temple made of tents/ cloth and other decorative items where a clay idol of Goddess Kali is established and invoked. Puja is done by Purohit at midnight when it is the best mahurat for doing so. On this day, Tantrics also perform Kali Puja but they do it separately and with other rituals. Their aim of worshipping is different from that of other people in general. li lost her control and started killing everyone who came her way.

Kaju Pista Roll Recipe

The Kaju Pista Roll Recipe is a delectable recipe that is packed with flavors from cashew Nut Pistachios and made into a fudge. The Kaju Pista Roll is most often made during festivals like diwali or on special occasions like weddings or as a gift for someone you love. Directions for Kaju Pista Roll Recipe

1. To begin making the Kaju Pista Roll Recipe (Cashew Nut Pistachio Fudge), first grind the cashews and pistachios separately into fine powder.

2. In a thick n heavy bottomed pan add the ghee, condensed milk and powdered cashews. Stir well to combine.

3. Add milk powder, rose water & start cooking this mixture on a medium heat until it starts to leave the sides of the pan & forms soft dough. Keep stirring continuously to avoid any burning at the bottom of the pan. This might take 10 to 12 minutes.

4. Now turn off the heat and transfer this on to a plate to cool.

5. Meanwhile in a bowl take the powdered pistachios and combined it along with powdered sugar, cardamom powder and make it into a soft dough by adding little water at a time. Knead to make a soft dough, just enough for it to come together. Try not to over knead, as it will get softer and will release oils.

6. The final step to make the Kaju Pista Roll is to shape it.

7. Take a rolling board and spread a parchment over it.

8. Place the kaju dough over the parchment paper and place another parchment paper over it. Using a rolling pin roll the kaju into a rectangular sheet.

9. Remove the parchment paper covering the kaju and spread the pista mixture over the rolled kaju.

10. Cut the whole sheet into 2 inch wide strips enough to make a Kaju pista roll. Roll each strip into a log. Proceed the same way to make the kaju pista rolls.
